USDA RURAL DEVELOPMENT ANNOUNCES FUNDING FOR THE CITY OF ROSEBUD

Rosebud, Texas, September 30, 2003— Bryan Daniel, State Director, Texas USDA Rural Development announces today that the City of Rosebud received a $13,900 grant through the agency's Community Facilities Grant program. The effort is part of USDA's Rural Development's national program to help provide rural areas build and enhance essential community facilities.

"USDA Rural Development's Community Facilities program helps rural communities keep pace with the needs of their rising populations," said Daniel. "Rural residents can utilize our programs to help provide essential public services that will enhance the quality of life for all rural residents."

The funds will be used provide lighting and security to the downtown area of Rosebud. The Texas Department of Public Safety has determined that driving conditions through downtown Rosebud are impaired at the present time due to alternating bright and dark spots at intersections. This project will complete the process of a volunteer effort by the citizens of Rosebud. The population of Rosebud is 1,493.

In Fiscal Year 2003, a total of $15.2 million in direct and guaranteed loans were obligated. Community Facilities loan funds may be used to construct, enlarge, or improve community facilities for health care, public safety, and public services. These loans and grants are made to public entities and non-profit organizations. Examples of eligible projects include rural healthcare clinics, town halls, fire trucks, county safety equipment, jaws of life, early warning systems, community centers, libraries, day care centers, and schools.
