

3rd Annual USDA Outreach Conference

Helping Farmers Help the land is the theme of this year's USDA Outreach Conference to be held at Virginia State University, Douglas Wilder Building-March 18, 2010. Rural Development along with many other USDA Agricultural Agencies will be under one roof for a one day learning session for farmers, rural businesses and rural community leaders. A free lunch is being offered.

Many informative breakout sessions are planned for the day so come out and see what USDA can do to help improve your future. Call 804-524-5960 for more information and registration.
