WV Community Development Hub, Inc. Approved For Federal Grant

Morgantown, WV – April 12, 2010: State Director Bobby Lewis announces that Rural Development approved a Rural Community Development Initiative Grant in the amount of $251,706 for West Virginia Community Development Hub, Inc., Harrison County, WV.

“Rural Development funds will be used to provide technical assistance and training funds to the West Virginia Community Hub, who will act as an intermediary to development capacity for ten rural WV communities,” stated Lewis.

These communities will undertake housing, community and economic development projects.

Rural Development serves as the lead Federal entity for rural development needs and administers program assistance through its housing, business/cooperative, community and infrastructure programs. The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability and where applicable, sex, marital status, familial status, parental status, religion, sexual orientation, genetic information, political beliefs, reprisal, or because all or part of an individual’s income is derived from any public assistance program. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.)

Further information on USDA Rural Development may be obtained by visiting USDA’s web site at <http://www.rurdev.usda.gov>. In West Virginia, call 1-800-295-8228 to be put in touch with the appropriate personnel serving your county. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (Braille, large print, audiotape, etc.) should contact USDA’s TARGET Center at 202.720.2600 (voice and TDD).
