Jefferson County Ambulance Authority Approved For Rural Development Funds

Morgantown, WV – December 19, 2008: State Director Rick E. Rice announces that Rural Development approved a Community Facilities Direct Loan in the amount of $1,310,000 for Jefferson County Ambulance Authority, Jefferson County, WV.

“Rural Development funds will be used to construct a new emergency operations facility at Fairfax Crossing in Ranson, WV,” explained Rice.

Through the Community Facilities Programs, assistance is provided to facilities such as libraries, schools, senior centers, and First Responders (e.g., ambulance services, hospitals), using a variety of programs that assist in funding construction, operating costs, repairs and equipment.

Rural Development serves as the lead Federal entity for rural development needs and administers program assistance through its housing, business/cooperative, community and infrastructure programs. The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability and where applicable, sex, marital status, familial status, parental status, religion, sexual orientation, genetic information, political beliefs, reprisal, or because all or part of an individual’s income is derived from any public assistance program. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.)
