USDA RURAL DEVELOPMENT ANNOUNCES OFFICE DAY

CLAUDE, Texas, June 23, 2004 - The USDA Rural Development Local Office in Amarillo, Texas, serving the Texas Panhandle area, which includes Armstrong County, will be holding an office day Tuesday, July 6, 2004, from 11:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. A staff member will be available to discuss housing programs for very low, low and moderate income families, various community program loans and grants, and business and industry loans and to provide guidance in applying for USDA Rural Development assistance. The USDA Rural Development office day will be held at the Law Library in the Armstrong County Courthouse, 100 Trice Street, Claude, Texas. Interested applicants are requested to schedule an appointment by calling 806-468-8600 ext. 4.

USDA Rural Development is committed to the future of rural communities. Our goal is to enhance the quality of life and increase economic opportunities in the rural communities we serve.

USDA Rural Development, as an equal opportunity lender, makes loans or grants to individuals or groups and guarantees to approved lenders without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, familial status, and handicap. Complaints of discrimination should be sent to: Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.
