USDA Rural Development Faith Based Pilot Program Workshop Announced

McKinney, Texas – USDA Rural Development State Director Bryan today unveiled a new USDA faith-based and community organization pilot program to help educate nonprofit organizations on the Rural Development Community Facilities Guaranteed Loan Program and connect them to local lending institutions.

“To further support our nation’s rural communities, these workshops will help faith-based and community organizations get the information they need about available resources,” said Daniel. “USDA Rural Development remains committed to helping faith-based and community organizations get access to federal resources to enhance their capacity to serve their communities.”

A workshop will be held in McKinney at 9:30 a.m. on June 23, 2004 at the Collin County Community College, Central Park Campus in Pike Hall. CCCC is located at 2200 West University Dr., McKinney, Texas.

Through an Executive Order on December 12, 2002, President Bush incorporated USDA into his Faith-Based and Community Initiative. As part of its faith-based and community focus, USDA ensures that faith-based and community organizations have equal access to USDA programs and benefits and works in conjunction with the Department's many mission areas to reach out and educate faith-based and community organizations about USDA programs and benefits. The best opportunities for federal assistance to faith-based and community organizations are outlined on USDA’s faith-based and community initiatives Web site at <http://www.usda.gov/fbci>.

USDA Rural Development’s community facility loan guarantee program allows lenders to finance and facilitate essential community facilities such as health care clinics, police and fire stations, schools and child care centers. Through this program, USDA can provide a lender a guarantee of up to 90% of the total loan amount. In fiscal year 2003, the average loan guarantee was $1.6 million with a range from $55,000 to $22.5 million.

To register, please contact the McKinney Local office at 972-542-0081x4. USDA Rural Development is the economic development agency for USDA, and the lead federal entity for rural development.
